

The Burton Charity Classic Golf Tournament (BCCGT) presents Semper Fi Saturday being held on Saturday, June 22nd, at Glendale's The Legend at Arrowhead Golf Course with a shotgun start at 7:00 a.m. The entry fee is $100 per golfer with all net proceeds being donated to the Semper Fi Fund (SFF), a non-profit agency dedicated to assisting wounded veterans and their families from all branches of the US Armed Forces.

The entry fee includes golf w/cart, range balls, a practice round (if you sign up early) entry into the Putting and Chipping contest and a Lunch Buffet. Each player will also receive a SWAG Bag Gift pack with goodies from our sponsors including raffle tickets. Prizes will be awarded to the winner of each individual flight and the Scramble Teams. Individual golfers may also win prizes on designated holes for, closest-to-the-pin, longest drive, and have the satisfaction that you are helping those that have given so much for our country. For a complete set of the rules visit our website: www.bccgt.org.

The Tournament has two formats: the first is individual play. A player competes only against those players in the same Flight. The second format is a four-man scramble format.

Individual Play Flight Competitions:

- The Purist Flight is for those golfers who eschew the use of play enhancing opportunities such as mulligans or free throws.
- The Needs-an-Edge Flight is for those golfers who could use a little help and can use up to six play enhancement opportunities during 18-hole endeavor.
- The On-The-Edge Flight is for those golfers who dream that they could shoot under if they had 12 play enhancement opportunities over 18 holes.
- The Over-The-Edge Flight is for those hackers that realize they need at least one enhancement opportunities over 18 holes to have a prayer of making the putt-off round for the tournament championship.

Four-Man Scramble event:

- There will be specials throughout the course that to your "Test" you team's Strengths....
